

Organization Membership

Description:

Organization Membership shall be open to any group or society whose Constitution is in harmony with that of the Council. A copy of the Constitution of the group or society shall accompany application for membership. Voting upon the application of such group or society shall take place at the next meeting of the Board of Directors following receipt of the application of the group or society. A two-thirds majority of the Directors present at such a meeting shall be required to approve the group or society as a member. A group or society so approved shall be declared an organization member of the Council upon payment of the annual fees for the current year.

Benefits:

Each group or society having organization membership may appoint two voting delegates to the Council. Organization members have the privilege of submitting project proposals for budget consideration. They also may access a range of council programs made available to the general membership. Each person (or family) belonging to an organization member receives the SGC newsletter, the Postillion, at no charge; are welcome to attend general meetings; and are eligible for election to the SGC Board of Directors.

Fee:

$50 per year
